Frivolous Accessories to the Feminine Wardrobe

BLOOMINGDALE BROTHERS.

A machine-knit silk banding, in bright colored Roman stripes, makes decorative sashes for the bathing suit and costs only 12½ cents a yard. Wide bands of ecru and white net, with narrow pleatings on both sides, are used for fichu effects. Price, 25 cents a yard.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

A white-lined parasol, companion to the white lingerie frock, costs $2.50.

JOHN DANIELL SONS & SONS.

Taffeta parasols in plain pongee and mesaline combinations are being reduced to $1.75. Hemstitched crepe de chine scarfs in light evening shades are to be had for 98 cents.

SAKS & CO.

White kid and colored striped belts are offered for 45 cents. Black and white striped belts are now only 25 cents. Very pretty Japanese parasols, in pongee silks and cretonnes, are offered in a special sale at only $1.65.

Saks' offers for $2.95 this small boy's suit of white, poplin, smocked in colors to match the collar and cuffs.

For the Very Little Girl

BEST & CO.

Little wool sweaters, trimmed in contrasting colors, are sold for $1.25, in sizes for babies up to three years old. Imported piqué coats, hand-embroidered, are simple and pretty, and cost $3.75. Little girls' dainty batiste frocks, smocked in color, are reduced to $1.50. "The sunshine slip-on," a simple loose frock of cretonne, may be worn with a guimpe, or over another frock. This comes in sizes for girls up to sixteen years, and, with hat to match, costs $5.75.

BLOOMINGDALE BROTHERS.

A cretonne garden set, consisting of apron with large pocket, sun hat and useful little cretonne basket to match, is to be had for $1, for little girls up to seven years.

BONWIT, TELLER & CO.

Of hand-embroidered net, which appears to be triumphing over organdie for neckwear, are dainty vestees priced at $1. Full ostrich boas are priced $2.95. Dainty little silk handkerchiefs, with colored borders, are only 12½ cents.

LORD & TAYLOR.

Well-fitted sewing bags for the traveller are made of either silk or soft leather, and are priced $1 and $1.25. Silver-plated mesh chain bags, strung on a silver-plated bangle bracelet, are convenient for shopping. Price, $3.50. Another model has the gate top.

B. ALTMAN & CO.

Enamel duck cases are lined with very attractive satines and have an extra tray and shirt pocket. The sizes, from twenty-six to twenty-eight inches, are priced $4.50. A novel shopping bag of enamelled cowhide opens almost flat and contains four vanity fittings and a memorandum pad and pencil in French gilt. Price, $5. Useful "Limousine cases" of enamelled cowhide, lined with lovely watered silk, are fitted with nine toilet pieces of Parisian ivory, and specially priced at $4.95.

Reductions in Shoes

JAMES M'CREERY & CO.

In a special sale here one can find $6 to $10 shoes marked down to $4.75. There are high, side-lace kid shoes in colors, and white judiciously trimmed with tan. At the same price are all white buck sport shoes and others trimmed in green, tan, etc. There are pumps marked down to $3.65.

I. MILLER.

15 West Forty-second Street.

Most of the spring models are being put on sale here at very reduced prices. Pumps, formerly costing $6 and $7, are priced at $3.95. A smart little $7 pump, with tan kid vamp and patent leather back and imitation side lacing, is among those so reduced. There are $6 imitation Oxfords in a combination of tan and champagne colored kid. High-laced boots in washable champagne kid, smartly trimmed with tan, are $3.95. There are also high, side-laced boots of white canvas at this price. White buck sport shoes, with rubber soles and heels, and elkskin tip to the soles (which may be hob-nailed if so desired), are marked down to $4.95. Men's $6 and $7 shoes, both tan and black, are also reduced to $3.95.

Fabrics for the Season's Frocks

STERN BROTHERS.

Very charming black-print materials may be printed to order in unusual colors and designs for $1.75 a yard, forty inches wide. Striped chintz for draperies, thirty-six inches wide, is now to be obtained here for 28 cents. Handsome imported cretonnes in futuristic designs and colorings are reduced to 25 and 35 cents on account of broken lines.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Japanese chiffon or peanut cloth is artistically hand-embroidered in all-over designs in self and contrasting colors. This is sold in eleven-yard pieces, twenty-eight inches wide, for robes, at the very special price of $6. Shantung, thirty-two inches wide, is reduced to 38 cents; the $1.25 quality to 58 cents.

Is Your Summer Abode Completely Furnished?

STERN BROTHERS.

Practical lamps for the summer cottage may be had in mahogany finish, or white enamel for bedroom use, with decorative chintz shades, at the reduced price of $1.75. They are about eighteen inches high. Unique little China coffee or tea sets, called the "three in one" because the sugar dish and cream pitcher fit on top of the little coffee pot, save much space on the breakfast or tea tray. Price, $1.

JOSEPH P. M'HUGH & SON.

9 West Forty-second Street.

The Ruskin pottery, with its wonderful coloring, furnishes just the right note of brilliancy in an otherwise neutral scheme of interior decoration. A small, graceful flower bowl is to be had for $3.50. Among the unusual wickerwork articles made in the Italian government schools is a sewing basket priced at $12. Like a sewing table, it stands on legs, and it is large enough to hold the family mending. For the tea table on the lawn there is a huge umbrella frame of strong wicker over which vines can be trained to form an English summer house, or it may be covered with decorative cretonne. Price, $15. Beach or lawn umbrellas of canvas, stencilled in artistic designs, cost the same. I saw, for $4.50, a covered jar of Hungarian pottery which might be used for crackers, or crushed ice on the tea table. It had a graceful willow handle.

A. A. VANTINE & CO.

Six-foot Japanese parasols, priced at only $3, may be used effectively as lawn umbrellas over the tea table. Especially decorative for the veranda of the bungalow are black lacquered lamps to be used with either candles or electric bulbs. These have round paper globes of bright orange. Price, $1.50. An artistic Japanese thatching for roofing a summer house is of grass about four feet wide, and costs 25 cents for a lengthwise foot. Hanging baskets of mahogany-colored bamboo, with very tall handles of bamboo, are zinc lined. Price, $1.50. A useful flat basket of brown bamboo also has a convenient handle and might be used for flowers, or as a sandwich tray. Price, 75 cents.

JOHN DANIELL SONS & SONS.

Large chintz-covered hammock cushions for summer use are offered for 50 cents.

Distinctly smart and equally serviceable is the English topcoat. This one, sold at Bonwit Teller's, is obtainable in black and white, gray and white, and tan and white checks, and is priced $19.50.

GIMBEL BROTHERS.

A quaint little nickel-plated candlestick carries a storage battery which furnishes the tiny electric light. Price, $1.10. Ice tea and lemonade sets, consisting of a large glass jug and six glasses on an enamelled tray, are offered for $2. A nickel top, with tea strainer attached, can be bought for 65 cents. This fits into the top of the jug.

LORD & TAYLOR.

To add to the attractiveness of the summer cottage are hand-painted brackets with quaint figures and designs for holding either a candle or an electric light. Price, $3. Large library lamps of wicker, with silk-lined wicker shades, are marked down to $7.

Table Linens

JAMES M'CREERY & CO.

Lovely hand-embroidered luncheon sets, made in Madeira, are of fine linen and consist of thirteen pieces. They are now reduced from $5 to $3.25. Madeira tea napkins, hand-embroidered, are offered for only $2.75 a dozen. Heavy weight, but medium sized, bath towels for beach use have pretty colored borders and stripes. Price, $3 a dozen.

M'GIBBON & CO.

3 West Thirty-seventh Street.

A new supply of linens has just arrived and they are of excellent quality and design. Breakfast cloths are priced from $4.50 and up, and napkins, $5.75 per dozen. The dinner cloths are marked $6.25. Huck towels for beach use, 22x44 inches, are $3 per dozen. The "athletic" bath towel for the swimmer is woven in ridges and costs $3.75 per dozen. Damask tea napkins, double hemstitched, are reduced to $2.25 per dozen. Truly luxurious imported bath mats, very large and heavy in texture, are marked down to $1.75.

Apparel for Boys and Men

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Japanese silk shirts of excellent quality are offered at the special price of $5. They have soft detachable collars. Others of pongee cost $3.50. Marked down to $1 are sport shirts of madras and Oxford, with the convertible collar.

JOHN DANIELL SONS & SONS.

Sample golf coats of knitted cloth, heather mixtures, etc., are offered at almost half price, $8.50.

BLOOMINGDALE BROTHERS.

For the very small boy are nice little coat suits of white poplin piped in color. With belted coat and straight trousers, this suit costs $1.98.

ROGERS PEET COMPANY.

The "featherweight silk" raincoat, priced $13.50, weighs but thirteen ounces, and may be packed into a small silk case measuring 12x7½ inches. It is of a beautiful soft gray toned silk.

GIMBEL BROTHERS.

Cretonne collars and cuffs have invaded the small boys' realm, and are seen on Norfolk suits of white drill, priced at $2.50.

For Summer Mornings, Afternoons and Evenings

GIMBEL BROTHERS.

White garden smocks, with cretonne collar and cuffs, are moderately priced at $2.95. Blazer-striped middie blouses, with white collars and cuffs, are "just the thing" for sports and cost $1.25. A smocked pongee sport blouse, with elbow sleeves and laced up the front, is $3.95.

FRANKLIN SIMON & CO.

White chinchilla sport coats, with braid bound lapels, smart belt and slit pockets, are offered for $12.50. Sport skirts in linens, gabardines, sport coats, etc., are specially priced at $2.50 and $3.95.

LEONARD'S.

24 West Thirty-ninth Street.

A practical and smart little gown for mid-summer mornings is of a good quality heavy linen, daintily finished in self-colored hand-embroidery. This model, shown in the new tones of mist gray and purple, is made on rather simple straight lines and has a guimpe of shadow striped flaxon finished with net ruffles. A charming little afternoon frock is of coral pink crepe, made with a jacket effect and trimmed with crochet ball buttons. It has a deep girdle of black velvet. Price, $12.75. A dainty white crepe de chine frock has a simple full skirt shirred about the waist and a chiffon guimpe with soft roll collar. The long sleeves are held close about the wrist by means of a ribbon run through crochet rings. Price, $16.75.

Designed especially for the summer bungalow are the hand-painted brackets for candle or electric light, priced at $3 at Lord & Taylors; the hanging basket of mahogany colored bamboo with zinc lining which Vantine offers at $1.50; and the Hungarian pottery "tub" for crushed ice, sold for $4.50 at M'Hugh's.

Concerning the Sport Lover's Many Requirements

ROGERS PEET COMPANY.

The "Gymkhana" golf sticks may be had with extra high reinforcements to prevent snapping. The iron clubs are specially priced at $2.25, and the driver and brassie, $3.75. For the camper is a compact cooking outfit for two people, fitted into a khaki bag. It costs $3.25. An excellent sleeping bag, made of an Angora finished wool blanket, costs $15. A khaki cover for this is to be had for $3.75. A camp cot which folds up compactly and has no extra parts to be adjusted, costs $3.

SAKS & CO.

A wool jersey bathing suit, known as the "sweater suit," with tights and tunic skirt, is practical for girls from eight to fourteen years. Price, $2.95.

FRANKLIN SIMON & CO.

Girls' sports and riding shirts, with convertible collars, are marked down to $1.95. They are of madras or cotton crepe. Chemisettes of pique, made with standing collars, are worn in warm weather with riding habit, and thus a blouse may be dispensed with. Price, $1. Riding habits of khaki or linen crash for the small girl are to be obtained for $10.

LORD & TAYLOR.

An attractive black taffeta bathing suit, piped in salmon pink, has a belt drawn through long eyelets cut in the material. Price, $5.95.

B. ALTMAN & CO.

A reduction of 50 per cent is offered on all baseball supplies for this season. Catchers' mits are marked down to 50 cents and up. Marking tapes for tennis courts are also reduced to $3 to $3.25.

A black and white "blazer" striped middie, laced in front, is sold at Gimbel's for $1.25.

Lingerie

R. H. MACY & CO.

Japanese straw outing hats, specially priced at 79 cents, are very attractive when draped or banded.

BEST & CO.

A new sport hat shown here has a crown of white plush, with a design in color half concealed by the nap and a felt brim. Price, $2.50. I also saw an all-felt in a soft mist gray for this price. Black velvet sport hats, faced with a soft, flexible straw in white and light colors, cost $5.

FRANKLIN SIMON & CO.

A good-looking hat of black velvet, stitched in white and faced in contrasting color, has a cord knotted about the crown. Price, $2.95. Soft white felt hats can be obtained at this season for $1.25 and up.

Odds and Ends Of Furniture

MANGES BROTHERS.

West Twenty-third Street.

A very attractive table desk of old English oak, with two small drawers and two large ones, is a copy of the King Charles period furniture. This costs $20. The "Puritan" table, in solid mahogany, has a drop leaf, and is especially suitable for the hall of a summer home. Price, $15. Mahogany bookracks, copied from a quaint old design, are priced at $6.50. Odd footstools in mahogany, with tapestry or hair cloth-covered cushion tops, are moderately priced at $1.75 and up. Especially designed for the summer home are Colonial four-poster beds in ivory enamel finish, which are to be had at the special price of $12.50.

R. H. MACY & CO.

Willow furniture for the bungalow or veranda is offered at moderate prices. A double settee, enamelled in any color desired, is priced at $9.74. An armchair, with pocket on the side, is to be had to match for $5.74. Rockers are $5.67. Attractive furniture, made with stained oak frames and artistic woven splint seats and backs, is also quite moderate in price, rockers being $6.24, and a double swing, suspended from a strong stand, $15.24.

Sport Hats

BLOOMINGDALE BROTHERS.

China silk nightgowns, simply made and trimmed only with hemstitching, are $2.98; envelope chemises to match are $1.98. Gowns of flesh-colored mull, shirred and picot-edged, are offered for $1. Princess slips, trimmed with wide lace ruffles, ribbon run, have lace top and shoulder straps, and because they are straight models have been reduced to $1.

BONWIT TELLER & CO.

"The evening tie" is a lovely little brassiere made of a wide ribbon. It has narrow shoulder straps and is caught together in front with ribbon bows. Price, $1.95.

LORD & TAYLOR.

Here I saw charming little envelope chemises of batiste, trimmed with net footing, for $1.95.

Truly to be worn in the garden is this little set of flowered cretonne, consisting of apron, bonnet and basket. It is sold for $1.00 at Bloomingdales.
